WESLEY & CO.,

ANOTHER GLORIOUS VICTORY.

NEWPORT, Oct. 18, 1813.

THIS afternoon arrived in this harbor the British Packet MORGIANA, Capt. Cunningham, of 18 guns, and 50 men, prize to the privateer Saratoga, Capt. Addington, of N. York. The Morgiana sailed from Falmouth 27th. Aug. with the mail for Surinam, and was taken on the 26th Sept. off Surinam Bank, by the Saratoga after an action of one hour and 5 minutes, by boarding. The following is an extract from the Saratoga's journal:—

“Sept. 21, commenced with light winds, and fine weather; at half past 5 A. M. saw a sail on the weather bow; made sail in chase— at 3 P. M. she hoisted English colors, and commenced firing with her stern chasers: At 3:20, P. M. the action commenced within pistol shot, and continued till 25 minutes past 4, when we carried her by boarding, with the loss of our first Lieutenant, and one man killed, and 6 wounded, one of them mortally. The prize proved to be the King's Packet Morgiana, of 18 guns and 50 men, from England bound to Surinam. Her loss was two killed, and 8 wounded, five of them mortally...among the wounded is Capt. CUNNINGHAM, and the first officer of the Packet. The quarters of the Morgiana were superior to those of the Saratoga.”

OLD Neptune, the God of the ocean one day,
To Columbia's fair genius did pleasantly say,
Your sons on my waters have made a great noise,
And I'm sure your'e a parcel of fine spunky boys.

CHORUS.

*The trident of Neptune in future they'll wield,
And conquering ride on the blue wat'ry field.*

The genius replied, Of my sons I'm quite proud,
Their glory is bright, nor is stain'd with a cloud,
And they ne'er shall disgrace of their country the name,

But shall fill with their deeds many pages of fame.
*The trident of Neptune in future they'll wield,
And conquering ride on the blue wat'ry field.*

While thus they were chating, a terrible din,
At a distance aloof, was there heard to begin,
They turn'd, and two vessels just then hove in sight,
Hot, hot, was the fray, and loud rag'd the fight.
*The trident of Neptune, in future they'll wield,
And conquering ride on the blue wat'ry field.*

Says old NEP. by the smoke which I now see that way,
I'm sure that the devil himself is to pay,
Let's go to the scene of the battle and see,
Which ship is most worthy the favor of me.

* *The trident of Neptune, in future they'll wield,
And conquering ride on the blue-wat'ry field,*

* *Away then they fled, but the battle was o'er,
The streamers of George was again forc'd to lower,
And Columbian's bright Eagle, once more was display'd,*

* *Perch'd high on the proud Morgiana's mast-head.
The trident of Neptune in future they'll wield,
And conquering ride on the blue wat'ry field.*

* *On the conqueror the God of the ocean then smil'd,
And pronounc'd him to be of true valor a child,
Then order'd his Tritons a garland to weave,
And bind with the halo the brows of the brave.
The trident of Neptune, in future they'll wield,
And conquering ride on the blue wat'ry field.*

* *Now success to the tight little smart privateer,
Who went to the battle undaunted by fear,
And the fine Saratoga which sails on the sea,
Shall as famous as old Saratoga's plains be.
The trident of Neptune, in future they'll wield,
And conquering ride on the blue wat'ry field.*
