THE Publisher of this DIRECTORY has endeavoured to remedy the frequent complaints made at his office, by strangers and others, for the want of a more easy guide to find out any person they might have business with; and notwithstanding his care to render it correct, it being the first of the kind published here, it cannot be expected to be wholly complete. He therefore hopes the indulgent public will excuse any errors or omissions which may appear, as he intends to have the next as correct as can possibly be collected.—This collection took place 1st September, and was sent to the press under its present alphabet, rather than detain it, as the longer such is on hand, the more false and useless it will appear—the next shall be alphabeted so as to find any person's name at a view.
