

AD 1710.

9 ANNE, c.11.

An Act for establishing a General Post-Office for all Her Majesties Dominions and for settling a weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof for the Service of the War and other Her Majesties Occasions.

Most gracious Sovereign Whereas by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second a General Post Office was erected and established in that Part of Great Britain called England and by the Twentieth Act of the Fifth Session of the First Parliament of His late Majesty King William the Third a General Post Office was erected and established in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland and several Rates of Postage were thereby severally appointed to be received under several different Powers and Authorities which Two Kingdoms being since united it is most likely that a Correspondence by Posts will be best managed and ordered for the Publick Good by uniting also the said Two Post-Offices under One Postmaster General.

II And whereas also Posts have at great Charges been established by Packet-Boats between that Part of Great Britain called England and the West-Indies and also on the main Land in North America through most of Her Majesties Plantations and Colonies in those Parts as also to divers Parts in Eruope to which no Packet-Boats were till lately settled and more Posts may yet be settled and established for the publick Good and Welfare of all Your Majesties Subjects. And whereas the several Rates of Postage may in many Parts with little Burthen to the Subject be encreased and other new Rates granted which additional and new Rates may in some measure enable Your Majesty to carry on and finish the present War so as suitable Powers and Authorities be made for collecting the same and sufficient Provision be made as well for preventing the undue collecting and Delivery of Letters by private Posts Carriers Higlrs Watermen Drivers of Stage Coaches and other Persons as all other Frauds to which the Revenue might otherwise be liable which cannot be well and properly done to answer the Ends aforesaid without [the] Authority of Parliament in a new Act to be made for the said Office and for the Revenues to arise thereby. We therefore Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Comons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by Authority of the same That the said Act made in England in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King Charles the Second intituled An Act for erecting and establishing a Post-Office and the said Act made in Scotland in the Fifth Session of the First Parliament of His said late Majesty King William the Third intituled An Act anent the Post-Office and every Article Clause and Thing therein or in either of them contained shall be and is [and] are hereby from and after the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and eleven actually repealed except as is herein after mentioned.

III And to the End a General Post Office may be established for and throughout Her Majesties Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland Her Colonies and Plantations in North America and the West Indies and all other Her Majesties Dominions and Territories in such Manner as may be most beneficial to the People of these Kingdoms and Her Majesty may be supplied and the Revenue arising by the said Office better improved settled and secured to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors in such Manner as is herein after mentioned. Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the said First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and eleven there be from thenceforth One General Letter Office and Post Office erected and established in some convenient Place within the City of London from whence all Letters and Packets whatsoever may be with Speed and Expedition sent into any Part of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland or to North America the West Indies or to any other of Her Majesties Dominions or Territories or unto any other Kingdom or Country beyond the Seas at which said Office all Returns and Answers may be likewise received and that One Master of the said General Letter-Office and Post-Office shall be from time to time appointed by the Queen's Majesty Her Heirs and Successors to be made and constituted by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain by the Name and Stile of Her Majesties postmaster General which said Master of the said Office and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereunto sufficiently authorized and his and their Servants and Agents and no other Person or Persons whatsoever shall from
